Gauge

4 inches = 10 stitches in single crochet

Instructions

Round 1: Make a slip knot and chain 51. Join with a slip stitch to form a ring.

Round 2: Single crochet into each stitch around. Join with a slip stitch to the first single crochet.

Round 3: Double crochet into each stitch around. Join with a slip stitch to the first double crochet.

Round 4-12: Repeat Round 3.

Round 13: Single crochet into each stitch around. Join with a slip stitch to the first single crochet.

Round 14: Chain 1 and turn. Single crochet into each stitch around. Join with a slip stitch to the first single crochet.

Round 15-24: Repeat Round 14.

Round 25: Chain 1 and turn. Single crochet into each stitch around. Join with a slip stitch to the first single crochet.

Round 26-30: Repeat Round 25.

Finishing: Cut the yarn and pull through the last stitch. Weave in the ends.

Tips for Success

- Use a soft, bulky yarn for extra warmth and comfort.
- Pay attention to your gauge to make sure your cowl is the perfect size.
- Don't be afraid to adjust the length of your cowl to your liking.
- Experiment with different colors and textures of yarn to create a unique look.

With just a few simple steps, you can create your own cozy and stylish chunky crochet cowl neck warmer. Whether you're new to crocheting or an experienced crafter, this versatile accessory is a great way to stay warm and look great during the winter months. So grab your hook and get started today!
