The Early Years: A Foundation of Service

Our story began in the small town of Hope, where a group of dedicated individuals recognized the need for a local organization to support the growing community. With a shared vision of a brighter future, they established our organization in 1916, laying the foundation for a century of service.

In the early years, our focus was on providing basic necessities to those in need, including food, shelter, and clothing. We also played a vital role in community development, supporting local schools, hospitals, and infrastructure projects.

FOUNDERS

Mary White Ovington, John Haynes Holmes, Moorfield Storey, Ida Wells Barnett, Henry Moskowitz, Oswald Garrison Willard, William English Walling and W. E. B. DuBois led "The Call" to renew the struggle for civil and political liberty.

Growth and Innovation: Meeting Changing Needs

As the community grew and evolved, so did our organization. We expanded our services to meet the changing needs of our constituents, introducing programs in areas such as education, healthcare, and workforce development.

Throughout the decades, we have embraced innovation and technology to enhance our service delivery. We were among the first organizations to adopt computer systems and online platforms, ensuring that we remained at the forefront of efficiency and accessibility.

Our organization has always embraced technology to enhance our services

A Legacy of Impact: Empowering Communities

Over the past century, we have had the privilege of serving millions of individuals and families, making a tangible difference in their lives. Our programs and initiatives have helped to:

1. Improve educational outcomes for children and youth

2. Provide access to affordable healthcare for those in need
3. Create job opportunities and support economic development
4. Promote social justice and equity
5. Enhance the quality of life for seniors and individuals with disabilities

We are proud of the legacy we have built, but we are also mindful of the challenges and opportunities that lie ahead. We remain committed to adapting to the evolving needs of our communities, ensuring that we continue to make a meaningful impact for generations to come.

Aspirations for the Future: Embracing the Next Century

As we enter our second century of service, we are filled with excitement and anticipation for what the future holds. We have developed a strategic plan that outlines our aspirations for the next decade and beyond, focusing on:

- Expanding access to early childhood education
- Developing innovative healthcare solutions
- Creating pathways to economic mobility
- Addressing social and environmental challenges
- Fostering a culture of inclusion and belonging

We believe that by embracing collaboration, innovation, and a deep commitment to our mission, we can continue to make a lasting difference in the lives of those we serve. We invite you to join us on this extraordinary journey as we shape the future of our organization and the communities we call home.

We are committed to working together to build a brighter future

: A Century of Service, a Legacy of Excellence

For a century, our organization has been a beacon of hope, providing essential services, empowering communities, and transforming lives. We are grateful for the opportunity to have served our constituents over the past 100 years, and we are humbled by the impact we have made together.

As we look ahead to the next century, we are confident that we will continue to build on our legacy of excellence, adapting to the changing needs of our communities and embracing new challenges with the same determination and passion that has guided us for the past 100 years.

Thank you for being a part of our journey. Together, let us continue to make history in the decades to come.
