- Beginner: This level is suitable for complete beginners who have little to no prior piano experience. The pieces in this section are typically simple and easy to learn.
- Intermediate: This level is for pianists who have a basic understanding of piano playing and are able to read music. The pieces in this section are more challenging than beginner pieces, but they're still accessible for pianists with a little bit of practice.
- Advanced: This level is for experienced pianists who are well-versed in piano technique and can play a wide range of styles. The pieces in this section are the most difficult and demanding in the library.

Choosing the Right Repertoire
