The Bully Basher was a magical baseball bat that Timothy's grandfather had given him. The bat was made of unbreakable wood and it had the power to knock out bullies with a single swing.

One day, Timothy was walking home from school when he was attacked by a group of bullies. The bullies were much bigger than Timothy and they were beating him up. But Timothy remembered his Bully Basher and he pulled it out of his backpack.

The bullies laughed when they saw the bat. They thought it was just a toy. But Timothy swung the bat and hit one of the bullies in the head. The bully fell to the ground, knocked out cold.

The other bullies were shocked. They had never seen anything like it before. They ran away, leaving Timothy alone.

Timothy was proud of himself for standing up to the bullies. He knew that he would never be bullied again.

Timothy Tolliver and The Bully Basher is a story about courage and resilience. It shows that even the smallest person can stand up to bullies if they have the courage to do so.
