The song is a piano-led ballad that explores the theme of love and loss. Sheeran has said that the song is about "the one that got away" and that he wrote it after a break-up.

Upon its release, "Wrote This For You Just The Words" received positive reviews from critics, who praised Sheeran's songwriting and vocals. The song was a commercial success, reaching the top 10 in several countries, including the United Kingdom, the United States, and Canada.

Musical Composition

The song is written in the key of C major and has a tempo of 73 beats per minute. It features a simple chord progression of C, Am, F, and G. The song is played in 4/4 time.

The instrumentation of the song consists of piano, guitar, drums, and bass guitar. Sheeran's vocals are the main focus of the song, although there are some backing vocals during the chorus.

Lyrics and Meaning

The lyrics of "Wrote This For You Just The Words" are simple and straightforward. They tell the story of a man who is struggling to come to terms with the loss of a loved one.

The first verse of the song describes the man's feelings of loneliness and isolation. He says that he feels like he is "living in a dream" and that he is "losing his mind." The chorus of the song reveals that the man is writing a letter to his loved one, even though he knows that they will never read it.

The second verse of the song describes the man's memories of his loved one. He remembers their laughter and their love. The bridge of the song expresses the man's hope that his loved one will find happiness, even though they are no longer together.

The outro of the song is a repetition of the chorus, but this time the man sings the words "I wrote this for you, just the words." This suggests that the song is a way for the man to express his love and grief for his lost loved one.

Reception

"Wrote This For You Just The Words" received positive reviews from critics upon its release. The song was praised for Sheeran's songwriting, vocals, and production. The song was also a commercial success, reaching the top 10 in several countries.

The song was nominated for Song of the Year at the 2018 Grammy Awards, but it lost to "Despacito" by Luis Fonsi and Daddy Yankee.

"Wrote This For You Just The Words" is a beautiful and moving song that explores the themes of love and loss. Sheeran's songwriting and vocals are top-notch, and the song's simple but effective production allows his lyrics to take center stage.

The song is sure to resonate with anyone who has ever lost a loved one. It is a song that offers comfort and hope, and it reminds us that we are not alone in our grief.
